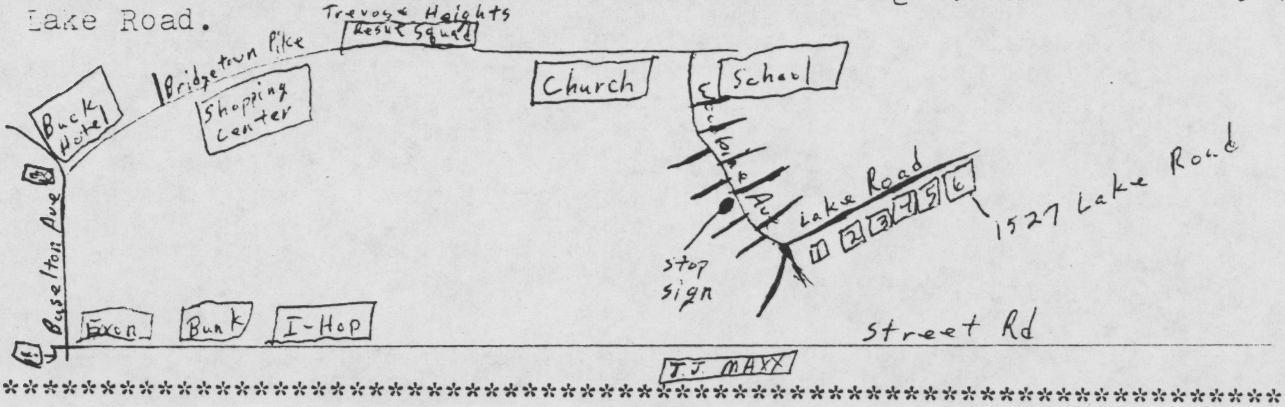
Make a left and it is the 6th house on the right. Address is 1527 Lake Road.



TO ALL THE UEC MEMBERS WHO CAME TO THE PARTY AND TO ALL YOU WHO DIDN'T (YOU MISSED IT)

As POM for June, 1988, I want to thank everyone who came to the Birthday Party. Everyone brought good kinds of "Stuff" to eat and drink, and best of all themselves. I hope everyone had a good time.

For those who missed it, you missed an opportunity to hit our "Beloved" (?) Dictator Pat in the face with a pie, A Seska, Susan our next POM, Maggie Ryan, one of the fearless leaders of the Cygnus Alphans and a new UEC member, and perhaps the one looked forward to most eagerly, Tom Beck of the Prydonians. We even had a long distance phone call to remind us of a bid to hit Tom in the face with a pie! Maggie was victimized by Pat Betz. In return I got to get Pat. Dorothy Case had the honors with Tom, although, a near bidding riot had to be quelled, in his case. In the most bizarre turn of events, Susan hit herself in the face. She was the high bidder! The funds went to a good cause—the club.

Our Retired Fearless Leaders and the Mothers of all us Children, Cecily and Amy. Amy was her usual charming self and, as usual Cecily taught everyone a few things about killer volleyball. We missed Dave, our other Dictator, who was hard at work in Delaware at the convention. It was a shame all you hard working people missed it.

Thank you again,

Liz Berg

Come To GAMBIT

Join Invited Guests Paul Darrow, David Jackson, Michael Keating, Terry Nation, Jacqueline Pearce, Janet Lees Price, Gareth Thomas and Sheelagh Wells*

February 10, 11 and 12, 1989

Newark Airport Holiday Inn North, Newark, New Jersey

For the "most excitement you can have with your clothes on anywhere in the galaxy" you'll want to deal yourself in to Gambit. For three days, you can mingle with the joyous multitudes of Blake's 7 fans, including guests from the cast. Here's just a sample of the exotic pleasures you'll enjoy...

- ♥ Guest panels—members of the B7 cast will be on hand for enjoyable—and often outrageous—question and answer sessions, plus some extra special discussions. Leave your tedious scruples about lying and cheating at home!
- ♣ Fan panels—join in with your compatriots for some in-depth discussions of our favorite program... and our favorite characters. You'll talk about everything from obscure philosophy to the aesthetic qualities of black leather and studs...and much more!
- ♦ Art Show and Auction—fandom's most talented artists will be on hand with the best examples of their craft...on display for your appreciation and purchase. Bring money!
- ♠ And much, much more!

So, don't miss the greatest show not on Earth...make your plans now to teleport to the Newark Airport Holiday Inn North in February! Send in the attached coupon today...because with such a good party, the limited memberships will be going fast! So, now is the best time to deal yourself in!

Guest appearances are subject to professional commitments*

Yes, deal me in for GAMBIT Membership: Full membership (3 days) at $45 ☐

GAMBIT has no relationship, affiliation or connection with DSV ONE or Decima Productions.

♣ CLUBS ♣

Hey all you B7 club members out there—have we got a deal for you! As a thank you to all the clubs who have given their love and support to promote Blake's 7, GAMBIT is offering a Club Membership. If your club has elected to participate in this program, and you were a paid-up member of that club as of May 1, 1988, you are eligible for a special $35 3-day rate. Please indicate below which clubs you belong to. Sorry, we can't accept any club memberships without this information. This rate is good only till July 30, 1988. After that date, only $45 memberships will be accepted. Also, this rate is available only to club members themselves. If you want to bring your friends, family, significant others, resident (or visiting) aliens or anyone else who is not a club member, sorry fellas, they'll have to pay the $45 rate. By the way, if your club hasn't received the Club Membership offer, please have them contact us immediately. This oversight could be caused by one of several reasons: the club had its detector shield up so we didn't know they existed, the post awful lost the offer, or possibly your communications were directly routed through Star One during the third season. If you're not sure whether your club is participating, ask them, not us!

♠ SPADES (And Shovels, Pitchforks, Hammers . . .) ♠

GAMBIT needs a few good sentients. No good convention can function without helpers, so we're inviting you to be among the few, the brave, the masochistic to work with us to make GAMBIT the best con ever. Not only will you have great internal satisfaction . . . but there are some interesting perks to go along with that intangible. If you're interested, indicate in the space below.

♦ DIAMONDS (And Other Valuables) ♦

The Art Show and Auction at GAMBIT is starting to shape up, so all you artists out there will want to participate. For more information, show us your creativity by indicating your interest below.

There will be several kinds of dealing going on at GAMBIT, not the least being in the Dealers' Room. Pro tables cost $50; fan tables cost $25. Reserve your tables by indicating below how many you need and enclosing your check.

♥ (Thanks, From the Bottom of Our) HEARTS ♥

Since the teleport has not yet been developed, we need to find other ways to transport our guests to the con . . . which brings us to the subject of money. GAMBIT is establishing a fund to help bring our guests to the party. All members contributing $50 or more will be invited to a special Las Vegas Night with the guests. There will be games to play, chances to take and prizes to win—and your chips are on us! In addition, each contributor will be eligible for special raffles.

At this point you might be thinking that you haven't got $50 to spare for the guest fund, but every dollar helps. We'd like to involve everyone, so we've added a second level of contributors just for fans like you. Although you won't be able to attend the party, we have bonuses for the under-$50 contributors. For each $10 you contribute, you'll get a Dealer Dollar, redeemable at the con table and other dealer tables who have graciously agreed to accept them. In addition, for each $5 you contribute, your name will be put into a raffle (for example, if you contribute $30, you will have your name in six times!). The prizes in this raffle, which is separate from the regular contributors' raffle, will be pretty special and will include original works of art from some of the top fan artists as well as some surprises.

So, for a few credits more you can help us make GAMBIT the kind of convention that we'd all like to attend. We need you—if you can help, indicate your contribution in the space provided below and receive our thanks from the bottom of our ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥.

Check as many as apply. Please be sure to enclose a separate SASE for each item where requested.

♣ I'm eligible to join at the special club rate and belong to the following clubs: _____

♠ I'm trustworthy, eager, and don't mind missing some of the con. Count me in as a helper. Enclosed is my business-sized SASE (25¢ postage) for more information.

◇ I'm truly creative, artistic, and wish to make money. Please include me in the Art Show and Auction. Enclosed is my business-sized SASE (25¢ postage) for more information.

◇ I'm a dealer and wish to make money (forget about being creative, artistic and all that other stuff). Enclosed is my check in the amount of $ _____ for _____ tables. I am a (pro) (fan) dealer (circle one). Enclosed is my business-sized SASE (25¢ postage) for more information.

♡ I'm a caring, generous, idealistic, kindhearted life form and wish to help bring the guests to GAMBIT. Enclosed is my check in the amount of $ _____ .

DOCTOR WHO NEWS -- June 1988 -- By Jim Lyon and Joe Siegler

Copyright 1988 by the authors. Reproduction permitted when retaining byline and copyright information. From CompuServe's Science Fiction/Fantasy Forum.

-- THE BIG JOKE? SEASON 25 NEWS --

"Doctor Who Bulletin", a fanzine published in Britain and generally regarded as a leading source of real Doctor Who news, has lied to the fans. Claiming that information they printed in their April news column was all an "April Fools' Joke" it has lead to much distortion of the truth. All the information about producer John Nathan-Turner leaving is true; however, much of the big hype surrounding Season 25 is not.

There will be NO return of the Brigadier. No Master. No Tegan Jovanka. No John Leeson as Davros. No Stratford Johns as the Ringmaster. And no reproduction of the "Unearthly Child" sets for the first story.

What IS true is as follows. Much of this is taken from the APC Net, an official DW information source from Jean Airey, based in Illinois:

Producer : John Nathan-Turner
Script Editor : Andrew Cartmel
A new producer will join them to supervise filming of the final two stories. The producer will take over for the confirmed 26th season, which is still said to be commissioned for only 14 episodes, as per the preceding three seasons..

Regular Cast : Sylvester McCoy (the Doctor); Sophie Aldred (Ace)

Story One : "Remembrance of the Daleks" (Serial 7H)
Written by Ben Aaronovitch
Directed by Andrew Morgan
Cast: Terry Molloy (Davros), Simon Williams (Gilmore), George Sewell (Ratcliffe), Pamela Salem (Rachel), Harry Fowler (Harry), Michael Sheard (Headmaster) and Peter Halliday (the Vicar)
Filming complete. The appearance of Davros is CAMEO ONLY, Terry Molloy confirmed as reprising the role (he played Davros in the two Eric Saward Dalek stories, seasons 21 and 22).

Story Two : "The Greatest Show in the Galaxy" (Serial 7J)
Written by Stephen Wyatt
Directed by Alan Wareing
Cast: T.P McKenna (The Captain), Peggy Mount (Stallslady), Jessica Martin (Nags), Christopher Guard (Bellboy) and Gian Sammarco (Whiz-Kid)
Filming complete as of June 3; special effects work now being undertaken. Stratford Johns will not take the part of the Ringmaster, which appears to be a nonexistent part anyway.

Story Three : "The Happiness Patrol" (Serial 7L)
Written by Graham Curry
Directed by Chris Clough
Cast: Not yet reported
To be filmed FOURTH; as last season's "Delta and the Bannermen", it will be filmed entirely on location (word says filming will take place in a quarry and Tunbridge Wells, where "Castrovalva" was filmed -- this is not APC net confirmed news). The special video effects, CSO feature and appearance of the Master are more likely, courtesy DWB.

Story Four : "Silver Nemesis" (Serial 7K)
Written by Kevin Clarke
Directed by Chris Clough
Cast: Not yet reported
To be filmed third, entirely in the studio. THANKFULLY, the return of the Cybermen in this story is confirmed; the title change is two fold, first to identify the silver Cybermen, and second to note the 25th (Silver) Anniversary. Ace will NOT be leaving in this story, she will ride out the entire season. No Janet Fielding and Nick Courtney.

(Side note, disputing the APC Net news: there are still reports that Nicholas Courtney may be doing a cameo in "Silver Nemesis", even though the BBC denies it. It is possible that the denial may just be a cover -- it's being looked into.)

-- MOVIE CONFUSION? --

The Doctor Who movie seems to at least be getting off the ground. John Nathan-Turner's job will be as LIAISON between the film producers and the BBC, not as Creative Consultant -- that job has fallen to Ian Levine, a former consultant on the show.

However, it seems inevitable that the movie will again be delayed until sometime after April 1989 (its current target date) because as of May 15, 1988, they still had not signed the contract with the actor they've chosen to play the Doctor. According to Levene (from London Radio): "The part of the Doctor has been offered but has not yet been accepted by the actor and as such nobody can possibly say who it is. The person in mind is going to surprise a lot of people, it's not an obvious choice but a delightfully inspired one. I think it's fairly safe to say he's not American!"

What we do know is that Tim Curry and Tom Conti were both offered the job, and both turned it down. None of the seven actors who have played the Doctor (well, if you include Richard Hurndall, it's eight, but....) were offered the part; neither was Peter Cushing, who played "Dr. Who" in two Dalek movies

Who even knows if Caroline Munro still remembers that she was cast for this movie at least a year ago?

HOPEFULLY we'll see some work begin on it now...

-- THE SEARCH FOR MORE EPISODES --

Does TOMB OF THE CYBERMEN exist? Of course, no one here is going to say for sure just yet, but rumors are starting to fly across the four big WHO countries (US, UK, Canada and Australia) that fans possess all four episodes and are being very secretive about them. At least, in Atlanta in 1981, it is said that TOMB was shown, and there are (not confirmed as reliable) sources that say they saw it.

It also appears that THE TENTH PLANET #4 is very close to recovery. The BBC has confirmed that the episode exists in its entirety but it has NOT changed hands, the owner waiting for someone to give him something of equal value. Episodes two and four of THE HIGHLANDERS are in a similar situation, but the BBC hasn't confirmed their existance.

-- MORE ITEMS --

The DW novels have undergone a change -- starting with "The Ultimate Foe" they will be featuring the new DW logo. The problem is that the logo overlay on the cover is the exact cel used in the show, which means that the top quarter of each cover is complete black background with the logo.

WH Allen will be releasing DOCTOR WHO -- 25 GLORIOUS YEARS this autumn, a 25th anniversary salute to the show. Written again by Peter Haining, this will be a collection of photos (color and B reflecting the various eras of the show, profiles of all the key production staff and actors, etc. There is also a possibility that WH Allen might release DOCTOR WHO -- THE TROUGHTON YEARS by J. Jeremy Bentham, a sequel to the earlier THE EARLY YEARS, if Bentham agrees to do it.

There were plans for Lionheart Intl. to undertake another tour to coincide with the 25th anniversary. Suffice it to say, the idea has been scrapped. However, they say, there is the possibility of a convention tour early next year, in the cities that attracted the most attention on the Exhibition. If you'd like to see one, write to Lionheart. (I don't have the address; you can call your local PBS station hey should be able to tell you.)

Soon to be released in paperback are THE TIME MEDDLER by Terrance Dicks (novelization of the second season story starring William Hartnell) and TIME AND THE RANI by Pip and Jane Baker (the first Sylvester McCoy story). The cover art on TIME MEDDLER features that character standing against a dark backdrop with a cloak; while RANI's cover is a photographic. (No, they're not going back to photo covers (thankfully); the covers for "Paradise Towers" and "Delta and the Bannermen" are already finished.)

As for Season 24, the ratings dropped back down to 5.6 for "Dragonfire", which made the season average somewhere about 5.2 or so. "Dragonfire" is generally considered the best story (that is, GENERALLY, some of us disagree).

More news as it happens....

----STAR TREK NEWS----JUNE 1988----
by Jim C. Lyon
from Compuserve's SF/F Forum

---NEWS ABOUT ST:TNG'S SECOND SEASON---

Until the writer's strike is over and production begins -- principle filming on season two of Star Trek: The Next Generation is set for August 1st, with a tentative delay -- many details cannot be decided.

Of course, the biggest change of late is that Gates McFadden has been dismissed from the series -- she will NOT be returning for the second season. According to Majel Barrett, the role has already been recast and the new actress signed aboard -- the announcement of her identity will be made closer to the date beginning the second season filming. According to production associate Susan Sackett, Dr. Beverly Crusher is being released because between she and Captain Picard (Patrick Stewart) there is "a lack of chemistry", which is nonsense.

According to things said at the same con, it was Gene Roddenberry's decision to let her go, not hers. At first it was said she wanted to return to theatre but verbal clues from several guests and others gave the hint that it was not Gates' decision.

Says the Los Angeles Times (June 16), Dr. Beverly Crusher will have transferred by the very first episode of the second season, with a gap of perhaps a year (say other sources) in the intervening time period.

At any rate, on Sunday, June 12, the "Save Dr. Crusher" letter campaign was started. The address to write to is: Paramount Pictures Corp., Star Trek Office, 5555 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90038. It is said that you should also try writing to Rick Berman and Maurice Hurley, producers of the show.

Other things happening:

Geordi La Forge will be transferred and be the new Chief Engineer next season.

Wesley Crusher and Data will be occupying the Ops and Con positions.

Worf will be the new Chief of Security.

Deanna Troi will be getting a new look, a new office and a new outfit, in an effort to make the character more appealing. She will also be getting more to do -- as Chief Psychologist, we will see her when we see the families aboard (another renewed effort for next season), while she will also be active when other civilizations are contacted. They are going to try to tone down her empathic contacts as well.

---STAR TREK FIVE---

A couple of snags. Although preproduction has begun and they are in the working stages, with a late August date slated to start filming, DeForest Kelley and George Takei have not as of yet signed contracts. George's delay is said to be just that -- a delay, while he checks out certain prospects happening this fall (rumor says a movie contract has been offered him). However, De is said to have recently appeared on television and is not ready to sign a contract for the movie -- it is possible that he is holding out for more money.

Still, the subtitle for the movie is "The Final Frontier" and some sources report that Paramount is looking to cast two major guest roles and a slew of minor ones. Unlike Star Trek IV, this will be a "space picture", though with a great deal of location filming as well. Yellowstone National Park is one location that is said to be already confirmed.

---TREK ON TELEVISION---

Confirmed current broadcast schedule for Star Trek: The Next Generation:

Angel One (Repeat)	6/18-19/88
11001001 (Repeat)	6/25-26/88
Too Short a Season (Repeat)	7/2-3/88
When The Bough Breaks (Repeat)	7/9-10/88
Home Soil (Repeat)	7/16-17/88
Coming of Age (Repeat)	7/23-24/88
Heart of Glory (Repeat)	7/30-31/88
The Arsenal of Freedom (Repeat)	8/6-7/88
Symbiosis (Repeat)	8/13-14/88
Skin of Evil (Repeat)	8/20-21/88
We'll Always Have Paris (Repeat)	8/27-28/88
Conspiracy (Repeat)	9/3-4/88
The Neutral Zone (Repeat)	9/10-11/88

There is a possibility that from the airdate of "The Neutral Zone" until the premiere of the first episode of Season Two (slated right now for November, however, with the Writer's Strike....) ST:TNG will be temporarily off the air. No confirmation of this.

---UPCOMING TREK BOOKS---

In just a week will be released GHOSTSHIP by Diane Carey, the first regular ST:TNG novel:

1595: A mysterious creature destroys a Russian aircraft carrier -- and just as mysteriously, disappears

And three hundred years later, Counselor Deanna Troi awakens in her quarters from a nightmare, a nightmare where she senses -- and understands -- the voices of the crew lost aboard that ship, a crew whose life-essences were somehow absorbed within the creature that destroyed their ship long ago.

Now, Picard must find a way to communicate with the creature -- or he and his crew will be similarly absorbed by the "ghost ship".

GHOSTSHIP is a July release from Pocket Books ($3.95), on sale June 25.

Another soon-release is THE STAR TREK INTERVIEW BOOK by Allan Asherman:

There's never been anything quite like STAR TREK. More than twenty years after Captain Kirk, Mr. Spock and the crew of the starship Enterprise first came to television, their original adventures continue to garner new fans -- while their new movies break box-office records! Now, in dozens of interviews especially conducted for this volume, noted STAR TREK expert Allan Asherman presents an indepth look at the people who helped create the magic of STAR TREK -- both on-screen and off. From Gene Roddenberry to Harve Bennett, from the man who designed the Enterprise to the woman who played Spock's wife, here is a wealth of never before revealed information and fascinating trivia!

THE STAR TREK INTERVIEW BOOK is a July Pocket release ($8.95), also on sale June 25.

Other upcoming releases:

--August--

THE FINAL NEXUS by Gene DeWeese (Preview next month) -- Star Trek #41, $3.95

--September--

THE PEACEKEEPER by Gene DeWeese -- ST:TNG #2, $3.95

SPOCK'S WORLD by Diane Duane -- Previewed last month, a giant book / hardcover release, as yet unpriced

--October--

Tentative: KOLINAHR by J.M. Dillard -- Star Trek #42, $3.95
